
Today's Highlights

Music and Dance Performance: Revue De Cuisine

11:30 a.m. & 2 p.m.

Wilson Hall; main level

Experience the mouthwatering performance of Revue De Cuisine by Tulsa Symphony with choreography by Portico Dance Theatre. Presented in partnership with the Oklahoma Center for the Humanities. Guest Narrator: Connie Cronley (from Iron Gate).

EuChee Butterfly Farm

10 a.m.–4 p.m.

Film Lawn; north end of Garden

Discover the connections between food and butterflies.

Taylor Hanson Discusses Food on the Move

1:45 p.m. (preceding 2 p.m. performance)

Wilson Hall; main level

Taylor Hanson shares the ingredients for the Food on the Move mission to end urban food deserts in our community and how you can help as well.

Tulsa Urban Bee Company

10 a.m.–4 p.m.

Film Lawn; north end of Garden

Taste local honey while learning about honey production.

Art Projects

Vegetable Prints

10 a.m.–4 p.m.

Education Studios A, B, & C; lower level

Using fresh vegetables as a medium, create your own masterpiece.

Beehive Painting

10 a.m.–4 p.m.

Film Lawn; north end of Garden

Paint beehives that will be installed in the Philbrook Gardens this coming spring.

Family Activities

Food on the Move

10 a.m.–4 p.m.

Outside of Main Entrance

& Mabee Lobby; main level

Learn about the mobile food initiative Food on The Move, a collaboration of food/health experts and community partners.

Canned Food Drive

10 a.m.–4 p.m.

Outside of Main Entrance; main level

Drop off canned protein—such as chicken, tuna or beans—to supply local Community Food Bank of Eastern Oklahoma.

Tulsa City-County Library Bookmobile

10 a.m.–4 p.m.

Outside of Main Entrance; main level

Story Time

11 a.m., 12:30 & 2 p.m.

Rotunda; main level

Meet in the Rotunda and enjoy storyteller Sarah Davis, of the Martin Regional Library, who will give us a taste of different stories about food. In partnership with the Tulsa City-County Library.

MyMuseum

10 a.m.–4 p.m.

Rotunda, main level

Join the free art club for kids and receive an art card and supply each month. Already a MyMuseum member? Please stop by for this month's cool supplies. This month's featured Art Card object is Peaches in a Silver Bowl by Levi Wells Prentice.

Take a Tour

11 a.m. & 2 p.m.

Rotunda, main level

Snowflakes in November?!

10 a.m.–4 p.m.

Mabee Lobby; main level

& Education Hallway; lower level

Be a part of a community installation and create a snowflake that will be hung in the Rotunda during Philbrook Festival 2016.

Scavenger Hunt

10 a.m.–4 p.m.

Mabee Lobby; main level

& Great Hall; main level

Second Saturday is made possible through the generous support of:

The Charles & Lynn Schusterman Family Foundation

The Herman Kaiser Foundation

Ruth Nelson & Tom Murphy

ONE Gas

The Grace & Franklin Bernsen Foundation

The George & Wanda Brown Foundation

Stuart Family Foundation